Hello Amit,

Need your support here.

Kindly follow up with the consignee to collect the shipment back from them since there was NO RELEASE instructions for this HAWB.

Since the shipper has not yet received the payment of the goods from the consignee, they want this shipment back to origin.

Kindly arrange to have this shipment picked up from them and keep us posted.

Else, shipper may claim the amount for recovery from us for this shipment being released to the consignee.

Kindly help.

However, I am familiar with this particular shipment and transaction and can tell you that the shipper has been kept apprised of each part of this transaction and has complicated this matter. At this point this matter is between Veerji and CSM and not a Brinks issue.

I will respond accordingly when Mr. Saint Mary is cognizance.
